The Most Holy Trinity

26th May 2024

Thought for the day

When people struggle to believe in God at all, our Christian faith in God as Trinity may seem somehow a needless complication. Yet, we do know that relationships and relationality stand at the heart of our human wellbeing. Words do fail us, of course, and yet we know that God in God's own very being is Love. This inner love (the "immanent Trinity") has been spoken and told, disclosed and revealed in Jesus and the Spirit (the "economic Trinity"). And yet, we affirm one God. This evident paradox must first of all be lived in prayer and only then haltingly alluded to in stumbling words.

Prayer

Father, ground of our being, we know and believe that you are Love itself. Help us let ourselves be embraced by your Love, as we follow Jesus and live by the gift of his Spirit to us all.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

New Parish Pastoral Council: The New Parish Pastoral Council will introduce themselves after all Masses this weekend with refreshments being served in the Church Porch. We look forward to meeting you all.

Community Games: The Marino/Fairview Community Games Annual Church Gate Collection will take place at all Masses this weekend.

Maryfield College – Lourdes Pilgrimage: Next weekend 1st/2nd June Maryfield College will take up a Church Gate Collection in support of the sick and elderly travelling to Lourdes in September with the Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage.

All donations will be gratefully appreciated.

First Communion: The 12.30pm Mass this Sunday will be a special one for all the children who celebrated First Communion with us this year. Mass will start with a short 'Corpus Christi' procession from the Marino Room and around the church grounds. All welcome!

Confirmation Volunteering Project: Our group of Confirmation volunteers enjoyed a short ceremony in the church on Tuesday evening to mark the end of this initiative. They told their volunteering 'story', from accepting the challenge, to meeting to identify who they'd like to help, right through to planning the visit and the visit itself. They reflected on how that 'story' might be linked to the story of Jesus who helped so many in need. Thanks are due to the very many parishioners who funded the 'goodies' they brought to the Fairview Community Unit and to the Hospitality Team who provided refreshments after the ceremony on Tuesday and a big thank you to the 28 volunteers who provided such great witness to their Confirmation. We look forward to more initiatives of this kind!
