Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

9th June 2024

Thought for the day

In our time, those who “persist” in religious faith can seem to outsiders “beside themselves.” The question needs to be asked: who is more sane, those who say life has a deep purpose and meaning and those who evidently content themselves with a “this world only” view. The apparently more rational view is ultimately irrational, in the literal sense that life has finally no reason, no ratio. By contrast, for the believer, behind the gift of creation stands a Giver. Within the gift of love, we come to know the Lover. As we gain and lose in life, finally nothing is ever truly lost. Faith is ultimately wholesome and utterly sane.

Prayer

Father, help us to see your goodness at work around us. As we acknowledge the work of the Holy Spirit, may we be drawn to you, the giver of every gift.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)- Call for Volunteers:

Following the introduction to the Parish Pastoral Council and hearing from the members at recent masses, we are delighted to tell you that there was a great response to the call for more Volunteers. Parishioners were interested in Volunteering for almost all ministries such as readers, cleaners, singers, Baptism preparation etc. It means you as Volunteers will be sharing your individual gifts and skills for the benefit of everyone in the parish which is exactly what we are all asked to do. This will bring a flow of new energy into our parish community. We will be in contact with all the new Volunteers in the next week or so.

If you missed the opportunity to Volunteer and think you might like to do so, you can pick up a copy of the pink pamphlet at the back of the church where you will find contact details, or you can call in the Sacristy or office for more information. Thank you all for your great generosity.
